Dear General:

25X1X4 I am sorry I had such a short time in New York yesterday, but I had nothing crucial to bring up with you. I have your letter of 18 November on the [REDACTED] and your talks with people involved. This is most interesting and coincides with other information we have received. I have passed your material on to those who are working on this matter. We would be very grateful for any further information you can send us.

Sincerely,
